

Executive Committee

Greg Duncan

Executive Vice President, President of North American Operations

- Joined UCB in April 2007
- Appointed in July 2011

Greg Duncan joined UCB in 2007 to lead UCB's European Operations. He then became President of European and Emerging Market Operations until 2009 when he was appointed President of UCB's North American operations. As President of North American Operations for UCB, Inc he was responsible for providing leadership and strategic direction to all aspects of the organisation's operations in both the United States and Canada.

Prior to joining UCB, Greg Duncan spent 17 years with Pfizer, beginning as a sales representative with Pfizer Pharmaceuticals Group. He steadily worked his way through U.S. and international assignments in market research, brand management, and general management with accountability for the launches of many "blockbuster" pharmaceutical brands including Lipitor[®], Zoloft[®], Viagra[®], Celebrex[®], Aricept[®], Lyrica[®] and Sutent[®]. He was appointed Senior Vice President of U.S. Marketing and President of Latin American Operations during his tenure with Pfizer.

Greg Duncan has served as a Board Member of the American Psychiatric Foundation (a chapter of the American Psychiatric Association) and presently serves as a Board Director for both the national Bio and the Georgia Bio industry association groups.

He also recently served as part of a select, seven member business leader committee appointed by Georgia Lt. Governor Casey Cagle, charged with the task of identifying $2 billion in savings from the State of Georgia annual budget.

Greg Duncan holds a master's degree in business administration from Emory University in Atlanta, Ga., and a bachelor's degree in economics from the State University of New York in Albany, N.Y.
