

Cyril Janssen

In 1993 Cyril Joined Can Do SA, an audio-visual and events company, and quickly became one of the key managing partners and a board member, prior to the sale of the company to the German group Procon in 2006. Subsequently, Procon was sold to PRG.

Cyril is a board member of several companies, most of which relate to human health and well-being. He also invests in select companies active in these fields, where his experience provides insight for growth. Financière Eric Janssen, Financière de Tubize, Generous, Bsit and Caring Entrepreneurship Fund are some examples.

Cyril Janssen received training at the Solvay and Vlerick Business School, with the aim of assisting entrepreneurs in maximizing their potential.
