Introduction & Professional experience

Rodolfo Savitzky is passionate about value creation through investing behind growth and innovation, driving productivity and developing talent. He believes in leading by example, empowering teams and fostering win-win relationships with stakeholders.

In October 2025, Rodolfo joined Recipharm as Chief Financial Officer. Prior to this, he served as CFO and member of the Executive Board of SoftwareOne from January 2022, where he led a group-wide operational excellence programme supporting profitable growth and a major acquisition completed in mid-2025, generating significant synergies and earnings accretion.

Rodolfo has extensive experience in the pharmaceutical industry. From 2016 to 2021, Rodolfo was CFO and member of the Group Executive Committee at Lonza, playing a central role in transforming the company into a pure-play pharma services leader. In 2021, he also served as Non-Executive Director and Chairman of the Audit Committee of Unilabs, until its sale to A.P. Moller Holding. Earlier in his career, Rodolfo spent more than a decade at Novartis in senior finance and strategy roles across multiple business units and corporate teams. He started his career at P&G where he held various finance leadership positions across Europe and Latin America.

Rodolfo contributes his financial expertise and industry insight at board level. He served as a member of the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee of EuroAPI from May 2022 until December 2025 and has been a Non-Executive Director of Worldline since June 2025.

Education

Rodolfo holds a Bachelor's degree in Industrial and Systems Engineering from the Monterrey Institute of Technology in Mexico and an MBA in Finance and Economics from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business in the USA.
