Independent Director

Member of the Board Since 2026

Year of birth: 1968

Nationality: American

Gender: Female

End of term: 2027

Introduction & Professional experience

Judy has more than 25 years of experience as a senior operating executive in finance and general management, and over 15 years as an independent board director. She has held leadership roles across finance, strategy, marketing, and corporate affairs in consumer healthcare, biotechnology, and manufacturing companies in the U.S. and Europe, and has been included on Institutional Investor and the Wall Street Journal's best CFOs lists several years running.

Judy has been actively engaged in governance for many years. She currently serves as an independent director at Belden Inc*, where she has been a board member since 2008. She chairs the Finance Committee, serves on the Audit Committee, and has overseen multiple CEO transitions, portfolio transformations, and leadership evolution. She is also a board member of Agilent Technologies* and serves on its Audit & Finance Committee.

Previously, Judy served for 11 years as CFO of Perrigo, where she played a pivotal role in scaling the company from a primarily domestic business with under $1 billion in revenue into a global organization with more than $6 billion in revenue and operations in 35 countries.

In addition to her public company board roles, Judy advises healthcare-focused investment firms and serves on several nonprofit and advisory boards.

Most recently, Judy was a member of the executive team at Amgen*, first as Senior Vice President of Finance, leading global business solutions as well as tax, treasury, and internal audit. She later led corporate affairs, overseeing communications, philanthropy, patient advocacy, and corporate responsibility.

Judy is a board member of MAHA Global, an AI predictive risk intelligence company, and holds several nonprofit and advisory board roles.
